5 Policy content

5.1 Data Protection Principles

5.1.1 The GDPR provides a set of principles which govern how the schools handle personal data. In summary, these principles state that personal data must be:

- processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes
- adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purpose it was processed
- accurate and where necessary kept up to date
- kept for no longer than is necessary
- processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the data

5.1.2 The schools and all individuals processing personal data controlled by each school, shall comply with the data protection principles in the following manner:

5.2 Lawfulness, fairness and transparency

5.2.1 Lawful processing

5.2.2 Personal data will only be processed where there is a lawful basis for doing so. This will be where at least one of the following applies:

- The data subject has given consent
- It is necessary for the performance of a contract or entering into a contract with the data subject
- It is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation
- It is necessary to protect the vital interests of a person
- It is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official duties

5.2.3 When special categories of personal data are processed (for example, health or medical data, racial or ethnic origin or biometric data (e.g. facial images and fingerprints)), this shall only be done where a lawful basis has been identified from the list above, and one from the following list:

- The data subject has given explicit consent
- The processing is necessary for the purposes of exercising or performing any right or obligation which is imposed on the schools in relation to employment, social security and social protection law (e.g. safeguarding individuals at risk; protection against unlawful acts; prevention against fraud)

- The processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- The processing is necessary in the substantial public interest
- The processing is necessary for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee

5.2.4 Consent

5.2.5 Most of the schools' processing of personal data will not require consent from data subjects (or their parents/carers as appropriate), as the schools need to process this data in order to carry out its official tasks and public duties as a school.

5.2.6 However, there are circumstances when the schools are required to obtain consent to process personal data, for example:

- To collect and use biometric information (such as fingerprints)
- To send direct marketing or fundraising information by email or text

- To take and use photographs, digital or video images and displaying, publishing or sharing these in a public arena such as:
 - on social media;

Consent shall not be assumed as being given if no response has been received e.g. a consent form has not been returned. Where consent is being obtained for the collection or use of children's information, consent shall be obtained from a parent or guardian until the child reaches the age of 12.
- 5.2.8 The schools shall ensure that where consent is obtained, there is a record of this. Where possible, consent shall be obtained in writing. All forms requesting consent shall include a statement informing the person of their right to withdraw, and an email address so they may notify the schools of any changes or withdrawal of consent.

- What personal data the schools process and why
 - What our lawful basis is when we process that data
 - Who we might share that data with

 - What rights data subjects have in relation to their data
 - Who our Data Protection Officer is and how to contact them
- 5.2.11 The schools' privacy notices shall be clear, concise and easily accessible.
